The Data Controller

Our school processes personal information relating to pupils, staff and visitors, and, therefore, is a data controller.

Data Protection Principles

- processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes ('purpose limitation');
- adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary
- accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date
- kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary
- processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data

Roles and Responsibilities

The governing board has overall responsibility for ensuring that the school complies with its obligations. Day-to-day responsibilities rest with the headteacher, or the deputy headteacher. The headteacher will ensure that all staff are aware of their data protection obligations, and oversee any queries related to the storing or processing of personal data. It is a legal requirement to appoint an independent Data Protection Officer. Sarah Webb has been appointed and is contactable via email sarah.webb@e2e-education.co.uk.

Staff are responsible for ensuring that they collect and store any personal data in accordance with this policy.

Privacy/Fair Processing Notice

Pupils and Parents

We hold personal data about pupils to support teaching and learning, to provide pastoral care and to assess how the school is performing. We may also receive data about pupils from other organisations including, but not limited to, other schools, local authorities and the Department for Education.

This data includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- Results of internal assessment and externally set tests
- Data on pupil characteristics, such as ethnic group or special educational needs
- Exclusion information
- Details of any medical conditions

We will only retain the data we collect for as long as is necessary to satisfy the purpose for which it has been collected.

We will not share information about pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. Individuals who wish to receive a copy of the information that we hold about them/their child should make their request in writing to the Head Teacher.

We are required, by law, to pass certain information about pupils to specified external bodies, such as our local authority and the Department for Education, so that they are able to meet their statutory obligations.

Data Storage and Security

Paper based records, digital records and portable electronic devices, such as laptops and hard drives that contain personal information, are compliant with GDPR and are regularly assessed by our DPO. Destruction and archiving of Personal Data procedures are also aligned to GDPR.

If you feel that Ysgol Treffynnon has mishandled your or your child's personal data at any time you can make a complaint to the Head Teacher by emailing info@yt.flintshire.sch.uk by or phoning 01352 710011.

Alternatively, you can contact our DPO to make a complaint, email sarah.webb@e2e-education.co.uk or contact the Information Commissioners Office by visiting their website (<https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>) or by calling their helpline on 0303 123 1113.

For further information about how Ysgol Treffynnon processes personal data and your rights please see our privacy notice included in this document.
